

Eligibility to work in the UK

You must provide evidence of your right to work in the UK if invited for interview or assessment. Any one of the documents included in List A or List B will provide defence if checked and copied.

From 1 July 2021, EU, EEA and Swiss citizens require immigration status in the UK. The majority* of them will prove their right to work using the Home Office online right to work service. Those who have made a successful application to the EU Settlement Scheme (EUSS) will have been granted their immigration status digitally and can only prove their right to work using Home Office online service 'prove your right to work to an employer' available on GOV.UK: <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>. To prove their right to work, individuals will provide the employer with a share code and their date of birth which will enable them to check Home Office immigration status via the online service available on GOV.UK: <https://www.gov.uk/view-right-to-work>.

Where a right to work check has been conducted using the online service, the information is provided in real-time directly from Home Office systems and there is no requirement to check any of the documents listed below.

List A – Acceptable Documents which show an ongoing right to work

1. A passport (current or expired) showing the holder, or a person named in the passport as the child of the holder, is a British citizen or a citizen of the UK and Colonies having the right of abode in the UK.
2. A passport or passport card (current or expired) showing that the holder is a national of the Republic of Ireland.
